Where does AI stop?

Two sessions, back to back. One draws the line. The other one stands on it and shows you a deployment that holds.

12:30 Session 6

AI Without the Theater: Setting Mobility's Decision Boundaries

Eashan Gupta Agentec Anindita Chowdhury Vestara Navneet Agarwal APML

A panel. Where automation earns its place, where a person has to approve, and where the decision never leaves a human at all.

14:00 Session 7

From Guardrails to Go-Live: Anatomy of an AI Agent Deployment

Eashan Gupta Agentec

Every delegate opens one family's move on their own phone, and the room works it together. Trusted data, visible controls, deliberate handoffs, clear accountability, on the wall, live, in your own words.

Bring your phone. You will be using it.
